

David Coulthard

BIOGRAPHY

David Coulthard enjoyed a long and spectacular career as a Formula One driver during which he drove for three of the most successful teams in the history of the sport - Williams, McLaren and Red Bull Racing. When he stopped racing in F1 at the end of 2008 he held the record for being the highest points-scoring British Formula One driver of all time.

Winner of 13 Grands Prix, including twice winner of both the British and Monaco Grands Prix, David achieved a remarkable 62 podium finishes during a stellar 15 year Formula One career which saw him race against world-class competition including Michael Schumacher, Mika Hakkinen, Fernando Alonso and Lewis Hamilton.

David played a key role in helping McLaren to win the Formula One World Championships for Constructors in 1998, the team finishing 2nd in 1999, 2000 and 2001. He also finished 2nd in the 2001 Formula One World Championship for Drivers behind the dominant Schumacher/Ferrari partnership and was 3rd in the World Championship on no fewer than four occasions.

A founding member of the Red Bull Racing team in 2005, David brought the team its first podium finish in 2006 in Monaco, and was instrumental in developing it into a 4-times World Championship winning team in 2010-2013.

Since retiring as an F1 driver at the end of 2008 David has continued working Red Bull Racing, driving its cars in promotional events all over the world. He has also remaining a brand ambassador for leading companies including Mercedes-Benz, UBS, Red Bull, IWC, Cooper Tires, Transcal and Heineken.

He has established a successful second career as a world class broadcaster and commentator, initially with BBC

Television and more recently at Channel 4, for which David's production company 'Whisper Films' produces the television coverage of Formula One in the UK. Outside of Formula One, David has been a successful entrepreneur, investing in a range of successful businesses which have added to his reputation as being a winner on and off track.

Winning Perspectives • First-hand Formula One Insights • Star Driver Appearances
Meet-and Greets • Ideal for Corporate Events, Conferences, Awards Ceremonies

Book now or learn more

If you would like to find out more about booking David Coulthard as a business speaker, or have any other enquiry, please call +44 1869 251212 (UK office hours) email info@mark-gallagher.com or visit www.mark-gallagher.com

